General Information

Please note that if you are attending a workshop with a casting director or director, these workshops are NOT an audition for any particular role in a commercial, television show or feature film, however, the guests are always on the look out for “new talent”. The workshops are more so an inside look into the screen testing process and acting profession and are for the purpose of learning about how the profession works interstate and what is required of you as the performer.

Importantly, they offer exposure to leading Casting Directors, Actors and Industry Professionals in a casual, intimate environment.

Payment

All workshops require a minimum of $100.00 deposit. Balance is due 7 days PRIOR to the workshops commencing.
